

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING

“ENGAGING PRIVATE SECTOR IN ENDING HUMAN TRAFFICKING”

MARCH 15, 2018

SOFIA, BULGARIA

BIO of Trainers

Suzanne Hoff is International Coordinator of La Strada International. As International Coordinator, she manages a broad range of tasks including strategy planning, lobby & advocacy and coordination of European projects and research on the issue of human trafficking.

Before La Strada, she worked for different NGOs, like Caritas Netherlands, the Dutch Centre for International Cooperation and the Dutch Refugee Council as well as for the Amsterdam Mayor’s office and International department of the Amsterdam Municipality. Most of her work focused on human rights and the situation in Central and Eastern Europe. Suzanne has an academic background; a master in Eastern European Studies and in (television) journalism.

Ilona Hartlief is an anthropologist and conducts research in issues related to the democratic control over natural resources and labour exploitation. She has been with SOMO for almost 5 years, first as a communications officer and recently as a researcher. Before joining SOMO, she worked in various communications and campaigning roles for NGOs in the Netherlands and Latin America.

Katrin McGauran has extensive experience researching migrants’ rights and has studied the role of multinational enterprises in exploiting migrant labourers in Europe. She also specialises in corporate tax avoidance, with a focus on the Netherlands’ role in facilitating tax avoidance through Dutch taxation treaties. Before joining SOMO in 2009, Katrin worked for a number of NGOs, including La Strada International and Statewatch in London, on issues ranging from migrant rights to environmental and economic justice.